Omatic Software and AvidXchange™ Announce Strategic Partnership

Charlotte, NC (July 19, 2016) –AvidXchange™, a leading software provider of Accounts Payable \(AP\) and Payment Automation solutions, and Omatic Software, the global leader in extending, automating, and integrating Blackbaud technology announce a strategic partnership that enables Blackbaud Financial Edge & NXT users to streamline their AP processes with a best-in-class automation solution. AvidXchange and Omatic share a common goal of creating efficiencies for nonprofits.

“Omatic's mission is to streamline nonprofit systems, so we were instantly excited when AvidXchange approached us with the idea to integrate their Accounts Payable automation solution with Blackbaud's Financial Edge & NXT software. Beyond drastically reducing AP costs, the AvidXchange solution also provides robust invoice approval and workflow functionality, features that are frequently requested by nonprofits. With Omatic's solution, AvidXchange and Financial Edge will be fully integrated, and users will no longer have to perform manual data entry into AP,” Jeff Montgomery, Managing Partner for Omatic Software.

“AvidXchange has a real passion for helping nonprofit organizations spend less money on operational costs, and more money on their missions. We’ve been able to do this by enabling nonprofits to automate their AP and payment processes with our solutions. As we continue to make a presence in the nonprofit space, creating the partnership with Omatic Software is a wonderful step in creating a great integration experience for our nonprofit customers to make their transition to automated processes even easier,” Jan Skinner, Accounting System Partner Evangelist for AvidXchange.
