AvidXchange Offers Free Webinar “15 Terrible Pieces of AP Automation Advice You Should Ignore” Featuring Author and Automation Expert Christopher Elmore

Charlotte, NC (February 11, 2013) – AvidXchange, leading provider of payment and AP automation solutions to midsize companies, announced today that they will be offering a free webinar, “15 Terrible Pieces of AP Automation Advice You Should Ignore”, featuring Author and Automation Expert, Christopher Elmore, on Wednesday, February 12th at 2:00PM EST. Over the last decade Christopher Elmore has heard it all when it comes to AP Automation, and had such an enormous reaction to his blog post that highlights 15 of the most terrible pieces of advice he’s heard that he decided to expand it into a webinar. Attendees will learn best practices on transitioning to automated processes, and how to avoid bad advice.

Elmore has been helping companies transition to a paperless process for more than a decade, and has gained invaluable insight into the payment and AP industry that he enjoys sharing with companies to prevent them from repeating mistakes that other companies have made. He has written two books, The 8 Pitfalls of Accounts Payable Automation and The Argument to Automate, which share Elmore’s best practices for implementing and using AP and payment automation while punctuating them with humor as frequently as possible.

“After receiving overwhelming response from my recent blog entitled, ‘15 Terrible Pieces of AP Automation Advice’, I wanted the opportunity to expand on the concepts and provide those looking to automate their AP processes with a little more context to these pieces of advice” commented Christopher Elmore. “I truly believe in the power of AP and payment automation, and consider myself a paperless evangelist. I’m really looking forward to this webinar, and always feel honored to have the opportunity to share best practices,” added Elmore.
