Charlotte, NC (July 6, 2016) –Central Piedmont Community College (CPCC) will provide specialized training for AvidXchange™ employees through funding from the state’s customized training program.

AvidXchange™ will receive more than $700,000 in training value from CPCC over a 2-year period. The training programs will include a broad range of skill building, including: customer service, payment services, project management, continuous improvement and leadership. The N.C. Community College System’s Customized Training Program offers training services and specialized programs to assist new and existing business and industry to remain productive and profitable and do so within North Carolina.

“At AvidXchange, we are passionate about our people and the great culture we have built. Our work hard, play hard approach requires that each of us are on top of our game at all times. Having a relentless drive for learning is part of our DNA and fuels our strong focus on innovation and great customer experiences that sets us apart from our competition. We are thrilled to partner with CPCC in this initiative to extend professional development and growth opportunities to our employees. As a company founded in Charlotte 16 years ago, we cherish opportunities to work with other great organizations in our community,” commented Todd Cunningham, Senior Vice President of Human Capital and Talent Management for AvidXchange.

“CPCC is thrilled to work with AvidXchange as the company expands its operations and presence in Mecklenburg County,” said Allison Bowers, CPCC director, economic recruitment. “The college, through our Corporate Learning Center, will work hard to deliver the customized training AvidXchange team members need now and as the company grows.”

AvidXchange™ is building a new 115,000 square-foot corporate headquarters at the former NC Music Factory, in uptown Charlotte to house its rapidly growing employee base. The company became the exclusive and sole sponsor of the NC Music Factory last March. As part of the sponsorship, the complex is now called the AvidXchange Music Factory.

Founded in 2000, AvidXchange™ delivers industry-leading accounts payable and payment automation solutions to midmarket companies to enable them to streamline their processes and create operational efficiencies. For the fifth consecutive year, the company was included in Inc. magazine’s 5000, ranking as the 180th fastest-
